■ Inflation Management

- Ability to boost the inflationary gain through a huge forward buying: Building an Inflationary Hedge for the Year
- High mature store growth has so far absorbed expenses increases
- Tight cost management

■ Cash Discipline

- Strong cash cycle management
- Opportunity purchases have been self financed
- Positive free cash flow generation
- Increased payout to shareholders
- Ability to keep investing and exploiting competitive weaknesses in a crisis

■ Strong Execution

- Reducing employee turnover, low stock-outs, improving customer satisfaction
- IT and Logistics integration have been key to support efficiency and large forward buying
- Finishing POS unification at Drogasil: More than 400 stores already rolled-out

Preparing for the Future

▪ Short Term

- Inflation increases margin differences from second quarter to second semester
- Increased inflationary pressures on the 2H15: Labor + Energy
- Increased expenses as a percentage of revenues are certain
- Ongoing cost discipline is crucial
- High growth will be crucial to mitigate expense increase
- Maintain gross margin momentum

▪ Long Term

- Preparing the acceleration of the organic growth from 2016: Faster Prospection, Higher Buffer, Better Process
- Strong Focus on the 4 strategic pillars: Expansion, Formats, Category Management and CRM
- Strong Focus on the 3 enablers: People, Processes and Platforms
- 4 Bio: Long-Term opportunity, tight fit within the strategic pillars: New Category, Same Customer

▪ Specialty Retailing

- High-cost, high-tech, high-touch medicines used in the treatment of high-complexity diseases
- Require special storage, handling, transportation and administration, as well as service support
- Products are centrally dispensed and delivered to the patient, they are seldom found at drugstores
- Demand generation through the patient, physician and/or payer
- In Brazil the cost is paid either by the patient (assisted reproduction, gynecology, endocrinology, etc.) or by a third-party payer (Oncology and Immunobiology)

▪ 4-Bio Overview

- Established in 2004 in São Paulo by André Kina, former finance executive of Procter & Gamble in Brazil
- Second largest Specialty Retailer in Brazil, with gross revenues of R$ 126 million in 2014 and of R$ 80 million in the 1H15, expected EBITDA of R$ 5.5 million in 2015 and net debt of 13,3 Million (Mar 31,2015)
- Specialty retailing market leader in Oncology, Assisted Reproduction, Immunobiology and Gynecology
- Only focused, pure play specialty retailer among the Top 3, without any exposure either to wholesaling or to government sales
- Great expertise in patient services, including adherence monitoring, waste prevention, auto refill, etc.
- Highly recognized brand among specialty physicians and payers
- Well structured and managed company : audited by Big 4, ISO 9001, Great Place to Work and other awards

Rationale for the Association: Reinventing Specialty Retailing in Brazil

- Leading the consolidation of the specialty retail market, the fastest growing and a highly complementary segment within the pharmaceutical industry
- Overcoming high entry barriers and minimizing distractions by partnering with a well-structured, high-growth company managed by a strong leader, with proven know-how, management capacity and shared values
- Becoming the only full service drugstore chain that can provide patients, physicians and payers with all their pharmaceutical needs
- Reinventing the relationship with manufacturers by becoming the only drugstore chain who can serve them in all their needs, including high-cost, high-growth, high touch, patent-protected specialty products
- Leveraging our brands, locations and customer relationships, as well as our strategic, financial and operational capabilities, on a proven specialty platform to reinvent specialty retailing in Brazil
  - Leveraging our brands and locations to capture specialty product demand and fulfill through 4-Bio
  - Exploiting the existing Raia Drogasil PBM relationships to increase 4-Bio's penetration with companies, health insurers and other payers
  - Leveraging our national presence and capillarity to provide on-site patient services and product access in selected stores across the Country, fulfilling unmet manufacturer, physician, payer and patient needs
